COMMENTS:

The April 17, 2002, amendments deleted the language that would have required the Department of Health Services (DHS), in conjunction with the Franchise Tax Board and State Board of Equalization, to conduct a feasibility study on the imposition of a sales and use tax on certain foods to generate funding for dental and health services for children. Instead, this bill was amended to require DHS to conduct a study on children's unmet dental health needs in California.

This bill would not impact the department's programs and operations or state income tax revenue.
